

NORTH AMERICAN PROSPECTS HOCKEY LEAGUE

- GUEST TEAM APPLICATION -

The North American Hockey League (NAHL) proudly presents the North American Prospects Hockey League (NAPHL) Tournaments. The NAPHL Tournaments will allow Tier I teams from across North America to compete in cooperation with the NAPHL. The 2018-19 schedule of events are as follows:

- Schwan Super Rink, Blaine, MN – September 20-23, 2018
- Schwan Super Rink, Blaine, MN – October 19-22, 2018
- Dr. Pepper Arena, Frisco, TX – November 9-12, 2018
- Schwan Super Rink, Blaine, MN – Nov 30- Dec 3, 2018
- Troy Sports Center, Troy, MI – January 18-21, 2019

The NAPHL is composed of three Midget divisions, (18U, 16U, 15U), with teams that compete at the Tier I AAA level. Now entering its 10th season, the NAPHL has established itself as a premier training ground for development and exposure. NAPHL events are strategically placed across the country and designed to maximize exposure by providing an organized and competitive experience that attracts an unrivaled scouting presence from college and junior scouts.

NAPHL Tournaments will feature the following:

- Guaranteed scouting presence from NAHL Coaches, Scouts or Central Scouting
- Events operated by the experienced and professional staff of the NAHL
- Real-time statistics and game tracking
- Live online video broadcast by HockeyTV
- USA Hockey Sanctioned Events
